

The following rules and guidelines are meant to ensure that Digital Sky fan experiences are fun, inclusive and supportive. We, the Digital Sky Crew (its creators at Zoit Media), would rather spend our time creating great experiences for our fans than resolving issues and managing problems. If you want to be negative, impolite or whatever else, there are tons of places for that – just not here. We encourage everyone to be respectful.

These rules apply to any and all members of Digital Sky's official fan club/groups, maintained by the Digital Sky Crew. If you do not agree with a rule, you cannot be a member of the group or participate in its activities. Guidelines make sure everyone is able to enjoy the fun (including exclusive perks) in an environment that is inclusive, safe & drama-free.

If you have any question or comments on these rules, please direct them to Bert at bert@zoitmedia.com or bertbenton04 on Instagram. The Digital Sky Crew will update and refresh these rules as needed, so please check back at digitalskypod.com periodically for any updates. We'll date each version when published.

As fans (and super fans), you are our most important audience, and we thank you so much for being a part of Digital Sky.

DIGITAL SKY FAN GROUP RULES:

- 1. All decisions by the Digital Sky Crew regarding violations of these rules and removal from a fan group (or your membership/account) or restrictions for violating any fan group rule are final, including any decisions to waive strict compliance with any rule.
2. Fan group membership/participation is only available to those 13 years of age or older. Anyone between the ages of 13-17 must have permission from a parent or legal guardian in writing in order to join the fan group and agree to these rules.
3. If a member of Digital Sky Crew contacts you and tells you to cease and desist any activity directly or indirectly relating to Digital Sky, the Digital Sky Crew, and/or the fan group, you must comply immediately. Not doing so may result in the termination or restriction of your fan group membership/participation.
4. Fan group only e-mails, notifications, exclusives, photos, videos, audio, e-magazines, content, membership/participation credentials, discount codes, coupons, and any and all other fan group material may not be shared, sold, copied, or otherwise distributed by fan group members to anyone else unless (i) the material is also published publicly or (ii) the Digital Sky Crew approves such distribution.
5. Copyright, right of publicity, privacy, likeness rights, and other intellectual property violators will have their fan group membership/participation revoked immediately.
6. The sharing of fan group membership/participation online credentials or accounts is strictly prohibited without the consent of the written consent of the Digital Sky Crew. Unauthorized sharing may result in your fan group membership/participation being terminated.
7. By participating in any fan group, including any discussion, you agree that any ideas, including future story ideas, fan art or other material you share with the group or the Digital Sky Crew become public property, and you relinquish any copyright, right of publicity, privacy, likeness rights, and other intellectual property rights in any such material, including any claim relating to future story ideas or materials created by Digital Sky or Zoit Media.
 - If you do share something, you automatically relinquish all of your rights to that material in perpetuity. By sharing it, you give Digital Sky complete and total license, forever to use it, even inadvertently. You will not be able to claim later any rights in anything produced by Digital Sky that is the same or similar.
8. No material created by any third party (including files, photos, writings) should be shared on any Digital Sky platform without attribution to the maker/owner.

9. In-person or real-time events, including online meetings and chats, may require additional rules or guidelines, including those imposed by a particular venue or technology platform being used. Any such guidelines must be strictly followed by participants, including fan group members.
10. Bullying, harassing, trolling, trashing, defamation, slander, libel, stalking, bashing or otherwise disrespecting anyone, including Digital Sky, the Digital Sky Crew, actors, or other fan group members, is not allowed.
11. We do appreciate respectful feedback, even if a bit critical, to make Digital Sky better in the future.
12. Any use of suggestive language, profanity, obscene, sexual, or vulgar language or material of any kind (including topics, photos, or posts) on a Digital Sky platform or in a Digital Sky group is strictly prohibited. The Digital Sky Crew reserves the right to suspend or revoke anyone's participation in a fan group as a result of such activity on any other platform as well. Use of coded words or symbols in place of inappropriate language can also be prohibited.
13. Digital Sky fan group members should not use Digital Sky platforms for any purpose other than discussions or activities sponsored by the Digital Sky crew, including:
 - connecting with other fan members privately without their express consent;
 - selling or advertising any product or service you may offer;
 - posting fan fiction, including, but not limited to, posting links to fan fiction and other stories unless approved by the Digital Sky Crew;
 - posting links to eBay, Etsy, Facebook pages, Amazon Marketplace listings, personal websites, professional websites, business websites, e-commerce sites, YouTube videos/channels, etc, unless approved by the Digital Sky Crew;
 - claiming that Digital Sky and/or Digital Sky Crew members endorse your product(s) or service(s), even if you are allowed to post about it in a Digital Sky fan group forum.
14. Do not make fun of or degrade another person's religious, political or other beliefs or engage in provocative off-topic discussions in any Digital Sky fan group experience. Tension and dissention are not the reasons we come together, so keep it positive.
15. Please do not send Digital Sky or the Digital Sky Crew or any other fan group member unsolicited materials, including photos, proposals, contracts, scripts, treatments, agreements, manuscripts, proposals or statements. Anything you submit is subject to the rule 7 above. If you want to send the Digital Sky Crew anything, please discuss it first with a Digital Sky Crew team member, preferably Bert.

16. Please remember violation of any rule can result in termination or restriction of your fan group participation, whether one time or a repeated violation, in the absolute discretion of the Digital Sky Crew.
17. Maybe we don't have to say this, but just in case, any violent behavior, whether physical violence or a threat of violence is utterly prohibited and may result in legal action being taken against the perpetrator.
